

Association of Professors of Mission
2016 Annual Meeting—University of Northwestern—St. Paul, MN

“Teaching Mission Studies in an Age of World Christianity”

Schedule

Thursday, June 16

2:00pm Advisory Committee Meeting (Nazareth Great Room)

4:00--6:00 Registration (Robertson Student Center)

6:00-7:00 Dinner (Graham Community Life Commons)

7:00-7:05 Welcome to the Conference (Nazareth Great Room)

7:05-7:40 Worship

7:40-8:40 Peter Phan, Teaching Missiology in and for World Christianity: Content and Pedagogy

8:40-9:00 Question Session

Friday, June 17

7:30-8:30 Breakfast (Graham Community Life Commons)

8:30-9:00 Worship (Nazareth Great Room)

9:00-10:00 Plenary Lecture: Mai-Anh LeTran, The Bodies We Teach By: (En)Gendering Mission for Global Christianities

10:00-10:30 Coffee Break

10:30-12:00 (5) Parallel Sessions: 10:30-11:10; 11:15-11:55 (Locations: Graham Commons & Nazareth Great Room)

Theology	History	Anthropology	Gender	Other
Nazareth	G115	G140	G210	G227
David Thang Moe: Theological Metaphors of Teaching Mission in an age of World Christianity in the American Context	Robert Gallager: Historical Case Studies of Teaching Mission Studies in an Age of World Christianity	Janice Rasmussen: The World's Christians	Leanne Dzubinski: Gender, Mission, and World Christianity	Amita Arrington: The Christian Practice of Hospitality Inside and Outside the Classroom
11:15-11:55	11:15-11:55	11:15-11:55	11:15-11:55	11:15-11:55
William Gregory: Mission Shifts from Pope Benedict XVI to Pope Francis	Matt Friedman: How the West was Won?	Christian Dumitrescu: Teaching Mission in Shame and Honor Contexts	Mary Cloutier: Mary McLeod Bethune	Sarita Gallagher: From Ethnotheology to Global Theologizing

12:00-1:00pm Lunch with Guided Questions (Graham Community Life Commons)

1:15-2:15 Plenary Lecture: Phillip Wingeier-Rayo, Teaching about Christian Mission in an Age of World Christianity, reflections on the 100th anniversary of the 1916 Panama Congress (Nazareth Great Room)

2:30-3:00 Business and Conclusion (Nazareth Great Room)